

capacity • commitment • character

Leadership Worth Following, LLC - Summer Internship 2009

Leadership Worth Following, LLC is currently accepting applications for graduate student internship(s) for the Summer of 2009. This opportunity is designed for candidates who are actively pursuing a career in Applied Psychology. Preferably, we are looking for graduate students with at least two years of completed coursework towards fulfillment of M.S./Ph.D. program requirements in Industrial/Organizational Psychology, Counseling Psychology, Consulting Psychology, or other related area. We are in search of premier students with the Capacity, Commitment, and Character to fully embrace and appreciate this great learning opportunity and working experience.

Opportunities

As an LWF Summer 2009 Intern, you will have the opportunity to lead a project, be mentored by some of the best consultants in the field, engage in valuable client interactions, conduct research, and learn the inner workings of a unique and successful consulting firm.

Requirements

It is necessary for our interns to relocate to our headquarters in Irving, TX. Having a familiarity with SPSS and a comfort with basic statistical analyses is also required. Because of the nature of our work we require our interns to practice a high attention to detail, be customer-focused, have strong communication skills, and be eager to learn and try on different roles as the opportunities arise. A proficiency in all Microsoft Office applications (e.g., Word, PowerPoint, Excel, etc.) is also valued.

Application Process

To apply for the LWF Summer 2009 Internship, please send us a cover letter, resume, unofficial transcript, and an original writing sample by the APPLICATION DEADLINE: Monday, March 16, 2009. Please send all application materials to cara@worthyleadership.com. We look forward to meeting you!